INTEGRATED WORKING IN AND AROUND SCHOOLS

Building resilience in children, young people and families

This event is for schools and other partners from around the region to describe some of their emerging practice, described within the policy area that is becoming known as integrated working, and the impacts they evaluate from these new ways of working. About 30 schools and settings will be contributing to the event and about 200 people will be in attendance. The day will be very informally arranged, providing plenty of opportunities to view the exhibition, attend workshops, network with others and generally take stock of the range of work underway. Refreshments and buffet lunch are provided.

BREAKOUTS A and C at 10.30 and 12.30

1. Wadsworth Fields Primary: Nottinghamshire Catherine Collins, Extended Services Co-ordinator Ann Widdowson, Family Co-ordinator Delegates attending this session will learn about how Wadsworth Fields are putting the theory of integrated working into practice through developments such as Parent Support Workers, Chill n Chat sessions and noticeboards. It will be a very practical conversation about the realities and some of the pros and cons being learnt along the way.	2. Djanogly City Academy Secondary: Nottingham Elaine Crookes – Principal 14-19 Victoria Marsh – Intervention Services Officer Delegates attending this session will learn about the new Intervention Services Officer post at Djanogly that is jointly funded with the LA. The brief is to look at early intervention strategies for not only the Academy's most vulnerable students but also those in our feeder schools and to allow for a family approach to intervention. We will also share the work we have done on implementing successfully the CAF process and how we are working towards using this to provide an integrated approach across the Academy by the creation of a CAF panel and development of a more coherent identification and tracking process.	3. Rosslyn Park School & Place 2 Be Primary: Nottingham Amanda Dawson, Head Teacher Dee Ingham, The Place2Be Regional Manager Delegates will have the opportunity to hear about a whole school approach to emotional well being and the difference such an approach has made to children, staff and parents. In addition to 1:1 counselling we will be looking at services accessible to all children and support for parents and staff through a structured model that is comprehensively evaluated.
4. Nottingham EIP Secondary: Nottingham James Brown, EIP Team Member Allyson Magill, Parent Counsellor Allyson is employed as a parent counsellor through an EIP and works across 10 schools. The key to some of the work she is doing is that she is working closely with City Homes, Benefits Agency, Local advice centre, Parentline and the Police to join up services for families. She also supports St Ann's and Sneinton 'Life' events which were devised by a local school and another EIP team member, James. These events are multi agency and again support local families by bringing everyone together on school sites. Both activities have made considerable impact on local partnership working and engagement of parents.	5. Notts Mock JAT Multi Agency: Nottinghamshire Cheryl Langmead, Notts LA Lisa Buxton, Children's Centre Chris Warren, Youth Service Jonathan Smith, LEO Emily Jones, Connexions Steve Pinske, Social Care Andrew Curzon, School Tbc, Emotional Health & Wellbeing Diane Curley, Police Lizzie Kay or Karon Birchall, Face It/WAM Delegates attending this session will have the opportunity to observe a mock Joint Access Team (JAT). They will be able to ask questions of the participating Service and School representatives and also to contribute ideas for the support of the Children and Young People under discussion.	6. Coppice Farm Primary: Nottinghamshire Kate Shaw – Food for Life Jo Sharpe – Headteacher Jane Oscroft - School Cook Donna Baines - LA Catering Delegates attending this session will learn: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - About the Food for Life Partnership, its aims and working methods. - How working with Food for Life Partnership has affected school, its pupils and wider community – school dinners, growing food, cooking in school, visiting farms, including the wider community in school life – the benefits and unexpected outcomes from the point of view of the head teacher and school cook. - How other schools can gain from the experiences at Coppice Farm. - About the work of the LA School Catering team in meeting the Food for Life Partnership's demanding criteria for school meal food quality

BREAKOUTS A and C at 10.30 and 12.30

7. Woodnewton
Primary: Northamptonshire
Ellen Wallace
Delegates attending this session will learn the 'story of Woodnewton' – a learning community 0 – 11 that is accredited by Exeter University as a Thinking School, piloted Growing Optimism, undertaken CWDC practitioner-led action research, is about to embark on a two year project Making Children's Learning Visible with the Research and Training Base at Pen Green, works in partnership with Central North Island Kindergarten and includes a DSP Nurture Group and Children's Centre.

8. Imperial Avenue and Rowley Fields
Infants/Children Centre: Leicester
Geraldine Connor – Children's Centre Manager
Delegates attending this session will learn what factors influence the successful development of Children's Centres on school sites. Also the challenges and the benefits for children, their families and communities, and very importantly – the staff !

9. St Clements
Secondary, Lincolnshire
Kieran Barnes, Vice Principal
Delegates attending this session will learn about some of the challenges and opportunities of integrated working: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Working with CAMHS Targetted Mental Health • Working at a strategic level with Lincs CYPS and the challenges and opportunities around this • Challenges in and around a National Challenge school and the dilemnas of pastoral support, integrated working and other demands of National Challenge schools.

10. Wellingborough Schools with The Alliance for Black Children
Northamptonshire
Susan Galloway, Project Worker
Delegates attending this session will learn that children with behaviour issues can overcome them by working closely with parents and other agencies to provide a holistic service to the children and their families that is innovative, creative and achievable.

BREAKOUTS B and D at 11.30 and 1.30

1. Catherine Infants Primary: Leicester Liz Hammond, Deputy Headteacher Gaynor Nash, Extended and Integrated Services Co-ordinator Delegates attending this session will learn about our family support program working with 'hard to reach' families whose children either have low attendance or are under achieving. The Family Support Worker works with the family, at home and at school, trying to resolve barriers to learning and empowering them to support their child's learning.	2. George Spencer Secondary: Nottinghamshire Fraser Mitchell, Vice Principal Delegates attending this session will learn about engaging stakeholders in schools by embracing new technologies. We will be showcasing how we use our VLE to engage our students in shaping school provision. Through 'Moodle' and online forums we find out what students really think in a way they like and this helps shape our provision. We are starting to use these same methods for other users, including parents and the community, and this will hopefully offer you ideas for a template you might want to adopt.	3. Spring Lane Primary: Northamptonshire Duncan McAlpine, Headteacher Margaret Riley, Chair of Governors Delegates attending this session will learn how Spring Lane Primary School has developed a charitable company and how the company has developed extended services. The company manages our children's centre, is working alongside the neighbourhood renewal team that is in the area, and how the school plans to take over this role once the funding ceases. The school has leased part of the school to develop a community centre
4. Westgate School Junior: Lincoln Tim Culpin, Headteacher Nicky Spencelayh, Senior Teacher Delegates attending this session will learn about the range of strategies which have been developed to increase parental engagement with pupils and their learning. They will hear how the workforce has been organised to reflect this school priority. Delegates will also hear about the systems currently being trialled in relation to the monitoring of these initiatives.	5. Trent Valley Academy Cross Phase: Lincolnshire Russell Butterfield Tom Megahy Delegates attending this session will learn about all aspects of the Gainsborough Educational Village - this includes the federation of Special Schools, and also the 'Federation' of Alternative Educational provision. We will try to provide a clear picture of our intent, but note that we are not actually in our new buildings yet and there is still some quite sensitive co-operative planning underway with Village partners.	6. Tuxford Primary Primary: Nottinghamshire Pip Bateman Massage in Schools Instructor; Holistic Health Team Clare Welfare, Headteacher Delegates attending this session will learn how the introduction of Peer Massage to the pupils of Tuxford Primary School, through a Healthy Schools funded Pilot Project, has contributed to SEAL, forming part of pupils Personal, Social, Health and Citizenship education. Utilising Extended Services resources and encouraging creative partnership involvement have meant that this innovative and useful tool is now an effective, timetabled, daily activity.

BREAKOUTS B and D at 11.30 and 1.30

7. Hadden Park High School
Secondary: Nottingham
Mel Ennis, Learning Support Manager
Delegates attending this session will learn something about the CAF experiences at Hadden Park. How we have used CAF so far, both with multiagency 'team around the child' and 'team around the school' examples. Also, how the school links in with other multiagency teams such as the police 'Vulnerable Persons Panel'.

8. Clowne Infant and Nursery and Sharley Park Primary
Primary: Derbyshire
Geoff Leyland, Headteacher
Delegates attending this session will learn how a school with levels social deprivation that are in the bottom 20% of schools can have SAT results in the top 20% of all schools. There isn't a simple single answer, but I'm happy to share my vision for schools. I'll tell you about taking risks, identifying your strengths, instilling passion, looking for allies, not allowing the curriculum or the school day to stand in your way. It's also about tackling the issue of boys in school, being creative and making sure your children and staff are fit, healthy and well. I can also talk about pace and I'm not afraid to tell you that the Nursery is the most important area in school. I'll give you ten things you can do tomorrow that will make an impact on your school, teachers and most importantly the children

9. Teenage Pregnancy
Secondary: Lincolnshire
Allison Lawrence, Children's Services Team Manager Jan Lewis, Teenage Pregnancy Programme Manager
Delegates attending this session will learn an overview of Tackling Teenage Pregnancy Strategy and some of the key factors in teenage pregnancy. They will also learn about some of the approaches being adopted in Lincolnshire including: Integrated working, raising aspiration, school based services, approaches with parents and support for teenage parents.

10. St Andrews
Special: Derby
Phil Harrison, Headteacher
St Andrew's has been on a journey from being a good school to a great one! The biggest reason for this improvement is down to developing our work with colleagues and partners from across all sectors. We believe that schools can only become fantastic by enabling all services to meet the needs of the young people and their families. Delegates who attend this session will hear about how St Andrew's school works well with everyone and how this stems from a leadership approach which highlights the positives and embraces the skills of others.

11. The Brunts School
Secondary: Nottinghamshire
Clare Allerton, Deputy Head Teacher Dawn Dodds, Inclusion Co-ordinator
Delegates attending this session will receive a snapshot of The Brunts School and our work with agencies and services to support and personalise the learning of the most vulnerable students to enable them to achieve and aspire. Details of systems and provisions within school, links with special schools and external providers and examples of student success will be included. Delegates will also see a video presentation of two students explaining how the college courses have helped them engage with school and achieve a qualification.

Dramatic Opening

The opening drama today is being performed by students from Sir Jonathan North Community College and The Lancaster School in Leicester. The students have developed the performance themselves with their drama teacher Angie Thornber from an outline idea provided by the event organisers. Back in Leicester today is another group of students who have contributed to the preparation of the piece but were not able to attend. The students here today with staff members Jackie Mason and Gemma Wright are:

Chloe Baldwin	Molly Boydon
Sam Gilbert	Harriet Slater
Tejas Johal	Amirah Hajat
Cameron Meikle	Mat Robinson
Tojan Thomas Browne	Joe Pinches

The character of Gem was introduced at the very first Regional Learning Project event in 2005 when the then Directors of Education met to consider how Every Child Matters and the transition to Children and Young People's Services might improve things for young people like her. She has re-appeared at occasional events since to provoke delegates to consider the practical application of policy developments.

Dramatic Conclusion

The event today will be brought to a close with another dramatic item, this time performed by members of Actorshop. The actors are attending today's event and will be interacting with delegates and attending breakout sessions. They will then prepare their performance, partly in response to the day's activities, to send us on our way with something to think about.

Information about Actorshop

Since 1985 Actorshop Ltd has worked extensively within business and education covering the private, public and voluntary sectors. As one of this country's leading exponents of Forum Theatre, Actorshop provide training and consultancy both in Britain and the United States.

Within education, the company works extensively in London - Barking & Dagenham, Enfield, Hackney, Havering, Islington, Lewisham, Newham, Southwark, Tower Hamlets and Waltham Forest delivering a range of issue-based theatre performances and workshops for young people together with staff development programmes underpinned with innovative educational pedagogy.

Actorshop offers education programmes for the whole school community, students, teaching and non-teaching staff, parents and carers. With over thirty years experience Actorshop has a wealth of expertise, but also has the benefit of current research initiatives led by company members in partnership with Creative Partnerships London East & South.

All of Actorshop's work offers a bespoke service because they recognise that all organisations are individual and require a personal service, but there are a number of frequently requested programmes.
